Course Questionnaire is due by Friday, February 28th

Return completed questionnaire to the office

Course Description:

This course is designed for students who have a strong work ethic and wish to experience leadership roles at Dr Knox. Students are expected to create, plan, organize, and facilitate activities for all grade levels through themed events and assemblies as well as in-school and community projects. All Leadership 9 students are required to fulfill service hours within the school and community each term. Spaces are limited.

Course and Classroom Expectations:

- Students are expected to work collaboratively in group situations
- Students are expected to be active and vocal participants during class discussions and planning sessions
- Students are required to contribute to activities outside of regular school hours
- Students are expected to record service hours, reflect, and make journal entries
- Students are expected to be positive role-models within our school community

Assessment and Evaluation:

Assessment will be comprised of a combination of self-assessments and teacher assessments each term. Students will be assessed in the following areas:

- Attitude, cooperation, and participation
- Service hours
- Leadership and organizational skills
- Reflections, journal entries, and self-assessments
- Research and skill-building
- Events

I participate in class activities and discussions and use class time wisely.
I cooperate with my teacher to make the classroom a safe learning space.
I am respectful to everyone around me.
I have a positive attitude toward learning.
I put my best effort into everything I do.

Please answer the questions below (point form is acceptable)
Name two adults at Dr Knox that would recommend you for Leadership 9:
List 3 things that you think these adults would say about you:
Explain how you cooperate with others and work collaboratively with a group of students you don't know yet:
Describe your leadership and organizational skills and how they can be applied towards creating a positive atmosphere and sense of community at Dr Knox:

Parent Response:

I have read the above form and understand what is expected of my child. I understand that some students may not be accepted due to limited space. I understand that this class requires volunteer work outside of the regular school day. I have discussed this course option with my child and approve of this choice and the requirements.
